Mrs McCarroll and daughters spent Sunday visiting at the home of Mrs. Wakefield.

We are sorry to learn of the serious illness of Mrs. Evans. She is reported some better at this writing.

Mr. C. Hathorne who has for some time past been the guest of the Lynn family, returned to Holbrook this week.

Since our last issue a few dropping remarks has prompted us. One is soon expecting to bloom out in that most beautiful of all flowers the "Hawthorne." "A Hen i see" is the favorite expression of another.

F. D. Preston, of the United States Geodetic Survey, was here two days this week observing the the variations, dip and horizontal intensity of the magnetic needle. Mr. Preston has made like observations all over Arizona. It is the intention of the government to establish a magnetic station in Arizona, either at Phoenix or Flagstaff. These places have been tested, but it is now known yet which will be chosen.

Is is said that the Arizona Legislature adjourns Friday. The Eight Hour Law and the Secretary fee bill, will be the only measures of importance to pass. The council is ready to pass a woman suffrage bill different from the one passed by the House. What Joshing!

In the journal of the celebrated English preacher, Frederick Robertson, occurs the following singular passage: "If I had not known a certain person, I never should have given up soldiering to become a minister; if I had not met a certain lady, I never should have known that person; if my dog had not disturbed that lady's invalid child at night, I never should have met her. It is true, then, that if my dog had not barked on that particular night I should now be in the dragoons or fertilizing the soil of India."—Ex.
